the name of his matter, and said something about it.—The night of the preceding day, both hatters, who had been informed that they were awaiting the moment that they would render them famous,—Base deceptions!—Another name was spoken. The puffing of his own hatter. He referred to the two young gentlemen who wished to lay claim to the Brazilian crown, in case it is ever patched up again, and, most likely, a reporter who saw them both on their arrival in England. "Both of these young princes are unfitted to take a leading part in such hazardous undertakings. The said that Mrs. Langtry is reconciled to her husband. It is quite certain they have been seen together in a London theatre, and they appear to be on the best of terms with each other. Further than this, it is also said that Mrs. B. M. C. has been seen with her husband.

the biggest sailing vessel that ever entered from Mrs. Laugtry's horizon—the Riachuelo is now there, the city of Yarmouth", 2164 tons, owned by Messrs J & J Drysdale.

A distinguished Brazilian visitor, Mr. L. A. de Souza, is booked to sail for Rio in the ship Albatroz on the 28th inst. The Minister of Marine has given him a parting souvenir in the shape of a few kilos weight of coffee, and a number of the public schools of the city have been asked to contribute to the gift.

No doubt the Plato is ever anxious to leave it without this special pre-which plays pretty much the same here as "the Indian shawl" in our country.

Prince Louis of Savoy will receive the matematic Corps to-day at 2 o'clock in the Italian Legation, and at 4 p. m. all the objects of his uncle who may wish to pay their respects to him; and they will probably not be few, as his late father was one of the most popular members of the Italian
